Information & Instructions to Students

1. Student-Centric Education : As per the guidelines of SGBAU, Amravati and NEP 2020, all academic and co-curricular activities of the institution are designed to promote student-centric learning, holistic development, and skill enhancement. With this regard college established AI Lab in collaboration with Anderson University, USA.
2. College Facilities : Students are encouraged to make optimum use of the facilities provided by the college, including: Capgemini Digital Academy, Accenture Digital Academy, Language Lab, WI-FI Campus, Central & Departmental Libraries, Internet & Computer Facilities, Sports & Recreational Facilities, Canteen, Departmental Store, Banking Service, Medical/Dispensary Services, Buses, Hostels, Girls Common Room, Boys Common Room, Laboratories & Departmental Resources etc, available on the campus.
3. Student Activities : Students are encouraged that they should actively participate in various cultural, technical, curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities organized through: NSS, ISTE, IEI Student Chapters, and various departmental associations such as CESSCAA, NASA, CESA, CSE-BYTES, ITSA and MESA. Such activities contribute significantly to personality development, leadership skills, teamwork, and professional growth. Students should regularly check the Notice Board / Whatsapp Group for schedules and announcements.
4. Library and Learning Resources : Students are strongly encouraged to make extensive use of the Central Library, Departmental Libraries, Internet facilities, and Departmental Computer Centers during and beyond regular college hours for academic enrichment and self-learning.
5. Notices and Communication : Students should regularly check College and Departmental Notice Boards / Whatsapp Group for academic schedules, examinations, university notifications, and other important announcements.
6. First Year Monitoring Committee (FYMC) : To assist newly admitted students, the college has constituted a First Year Monitoring Committee (FYMC). In case of any difficulty related to: academics, timetable, office work, transportation, hostel facilities, or other student services, Students are advised to contact the FYMC for guidance and support.
7. Academic Planning : Academic schedules may be notified periodically. Students should follow official notices and contact the concerned HOD for clarification, if required.
8. Student Support and Guidance : The college administration, faculty members, mentors, and various committees are always available to support students in their academic, personal, and professional development. Students are encouraged to seek guidance whenever required and actively participate in all opportunities provided by the institution.
9. Attendance : Regular attendance is mandatory for satisfactory academic progress and eligibility to appear for the University Examinations. Students failing to meet the prescribed attendance requirement may be treated as defaulters. Their parents/guardians may be informed, and disciplinary action, including fines, may be imposed as per Institute rules. Students with attendance below the prescribed limit of a minimum of 75% attendance separately in Theory and Practical classes during each semester may be detained from appearing for the University Examinations in accordance with the University regulations.
10. Continuous Assessment : Continuous assessment marks for Theory and Practical courses shall be based on three Continuous assessment tests, assignments, Lab Manuals, viva-voce, attendance, and overall academic performance, as per the guidelines of the Institute and University. Assessment marks will be displayed on the Department Notice Board. Students are encouraged to review their evaluated answer scripts within the stipulated period and continuously improve their academic performance. Previous University Question Papers, Question Banks, and Laboratory Manuals are available in the respective departments for academic support.
11. Moral and Ethical Values : Students shall uphold high standards of moral, ethical, and professional conduct. Ragging in any form is strictly prohibited and is punishable under the provisions of law. Students are expected to maintain mutual respect, discipline, social responsibility, and dignity in their interactions with faculty members, staff, fellow students, and society at large.

"The College strives to provide an environment conducive to academic excellence, innovation, character building, and overall personality development. Students are expected to make the best use of the opportunities and facilities available for their holistic growth."

INSTRUCTIONS

First Year Monitoring Committee (FYMC)

Chairman - Dr. P.D. Bhanawat

Members - Prof. A.S. Gawande, Dr. J.V. Shegokar, Dr. V.R. Thakare, Prof. S.J. Ningwal

Code of Behaviour

1. Professional Conduct : Students shall maintain discipline, courtesy, integrity, and respectful behaviour towards faculty members, staff, fellow students, and visitors both within and outside the college premises.
2. Attendance and Punctuality : Regular attendance and punctuality are mandatory. Students are expected to attend all classes, Practicals, examinations, and college activities as per the academic schedule.
3. Leave and Absence : Any absence from classes must be supported by prior permission or a valid explanation. In case of illness exceeding three days, a medical certificate shall be submitted to the concerned Class Teacher/HOD. Continuous absence without permission may lead to disciplinary action.
4. Academic Discipline : Students shall attend all assigned lectures, Practicals, tutorials, and examinations regularly. Unauthorized absence, academic negligence, malpractice in examinations, or submission of false information shall be viewed seriously.
5. Participation in Official Activities : Students participating in sports, cultural, NSS, UBA, technical events, industrial visits, training programs, or other co-curricular activities shall obtain prior permission from the concerned authorities.
6. Campus Decorum : Students shall maintain order and decorum in classrooms, laboratories, corridors, libraries, computer centers, and all other college facilities. Running, shouting, creating disturbances, or engaging in disruptive activities is strictly prohibited.
7. Use of Electronic Devices : Mobile phones and other electronic devices shall be used responsibly and only as permitted by the institute. Any use that disturbs academic activities or violates institutional rules may invite disciplinary action.
8. Care of College Property : Students shall protect and preserve college property, equipment, furniture, laboratories, and other facilities. Any damage caused intentionally or through negligence shall be recovered from the concerned student(s).
9. Cleanliness and Personal Appearance : Students shall maintain personal hygiene, wear the prescribed uniform/dress code along with Current Year College ID Card, and contribute actively to keeping the campus clean and environmentally friendly.
10. Safety and Security : Students are responsible for the safety of their personal belongings. The institute shall not be responsible for the loss of money, mobile phones, laptops, valuables, or other personal items.
11. Meetings, Events and Public Activities : No student shall organize meetings, demonstrations, celebrations, collections, excursions, or any group activity in the name of the college without prior written permission from the Head of Department and the Principal.
12. Anti-Ragging and Disciplinary Measures : Ragging, harassment, misconduct, possession of objectionable material, insubordination, or any act detrimental to the reputation of the institution is strictly prohibited. The Principal reserves the right to take appropriate disciplinary action, including suspension or expulsion, depending upon the severity of the offence.

Note to Parents

1. Parents play a vital role in the education and overall development of their ward. They are requested to cooperate with the Institute in maintaining regular attendance, discipline, and academic progress.
2. Parents are expected to remain in regular contact with the Class Teacher, Mentor, or Head of Department and respond promptly to communications issued by the Institute.
3. Progress reports, notices, and other important communications sent through students should be duly acknowledged and signed by the parents/guardians whenever required.
4. In case a student is absent due to illness or any other valid reason for more than three days, the concerned Class Teacher and Head of Department should be informed immediately.
5. Parents are requested to ensure timely payment of tuition fees and other dues as per the schedule notified by the Institute to avoid penalties and administrative inconvenience.
6. The Institute looks forward to the active support and cooperation of parents in fostering the academic excellence, discipline, and character development of their wards.
7. Students indulged in any type of unfair means, such as: addictions of Alcohol or drugs, involvement in antisocial elements, aggressive behavior or violence, participation in criminal or disruptive groups, cyber bullying, defamation on social media, sending offensive messages, disrupting the social and religious harmony is the sole responsibility of parents and they should keenly observe all the activities of their ward and should take corrective measures accordingly

Ragging Circular

Applicable for First Year to Final Year Students admitted in academic year 2026 - 27 till the completion of engineering course

Action against ragging : Maharashtra Prohibition of Ragging Act XXXIII of 1999 which is in effect from 15th May 1999 has the following provisions for Action against Ragging.

- Ragging within or outside of any educational institution is prohibited,
- Whosoever directly or indirectly commits, participates in, abets, or propagates ragging within or outside any educational institution shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term up to 2 years and / or penalty which may extend to ten thousand rupees.
- Any student convicted of an offence of ragging shall be dismissed from the educational institution and such student shall not be admitted in any other educational institution for a period of five years from the date of order of such dismissal.
- Whenever any student or, as the case may be, the parent or guardian or a teacher of an educational institution complains, in writing, of ragging to the head of the educational institution, the head of the educational institution shall, without prejudice to the foregoing provisions, within seven days of the receipt of the complaint, enquire into the matter mentioned in the complaint and if, prima facie, it is found true, suspend the student who is accused of the offence, and shall, immediately forward the complaint to the police station having jurisdiction over the area in which the educational institution is situated, for further action. Where, on enquiry by the head of the educational institution, it is found that there is no substance, prima facie, in the complaint received; he /she shall intimate the fact, in writing, to the complainant. The decision of the head of the educational institution shall be final.
- If the head of the educational institution fails or neglects to act in the manner specified in section "d" above when a complaint of ragging is made, such person shall be deemed to have abetted the offence and shall, on conviction, be punished as provided for in section "b" above.
